

UMPIRE BOOKLET

Ninth Annual
San Diego
Memorial Day Weekend
Fun Tournament

May 25-27, 2019

Welcome, Blue

Welcome to the 9th San Diego Memorial Day Fun Tournament 2019. We have assembled this reference information to help your effort to officiate our games. Thank you for your service. This booklet includes information specifically for umpiring, such as rules, and also tournament info such as contacts and maps/directions to the playing fields. It is also available online at www.sdseniorbaseball.com/Umpires.html.

When viewed online, this booklet has links to the Internet marked (link). Contents:

Tournament-specific Rules

These rules are San Diego Memorial Day Weekend tournament-specific rules that over-ride MSBL rules. They are also available on the tournament website in more detail at <http://www.sdseniorbaseball.com/Rules.html>.

- ① MSBL Rules (link) will be followed in conjunction with the following which take precedence (umpires will have copy).
- ① This is a wood bat tournament.
- ① Players must be 60 years old, or older, in 2019. There are no exceptions.
- ① A/B batting lineups and shared players are allowed (see explanations on website). If shared players are chosen, there are no courtesy runners.
- ① Round robin games 7 innings, 2:15 time limit (no inning may start after 2:15) and may end in a tie.
- ① Playoff games are 7 innings with no time limit.
- ① Base running. Pinch runners will be allowed for catchers (required when 2 out) and a maximum of three position players identified by each team at the start of the game. Substitute runner must be last batted out.
- ① Helmets must be worn by all batters, runners and base coaches; each team may have a child batboy/batgirl who should also wear a helmet.
- ① No player can play on two different teams in the same division in the tournament (can play 60+ and 65+ if paid both).

Rules: Prior attention

In 2013, umpires received among the best ratings of all the post-tournament feedback survey questions. We also experienced a few issues that umpires can help us with in following years. There were no new issues in 2014-18. The following would make a good discussion at the pre-game conference.

- Time to end game (after 2:15 complete the inning, not drop-dead)
- Slide-or-avoid (not necessary to have been able to make play; no call if no contact and did not force fielder to alter play)
- Base running substitutions (+ 3 courtesy runners or shared players)
- Speed up games by minimizing infield warm-ups, umpire requests, etc. This is important to visiting teams with big rosters to get playing time.
- Fun tournament, rare ejections (see Ejection of Catcher report)

More details follow

Time to end game

The MSBL rule is very clear about games with a time limit. You always complete the inning when time runs out. Unfortunately, 2013 tournament officials at one field incorrectly ended games immediately when the 2:15 time limit was reached, the score reverting to the prior inning. That was incorrect.

Slide-or-avoid

A couple players complained about uniformity of interpreting the slide-avoid rule. It might be a good discussion item. Here was one complaint for your info.

"I was on first and the batter hit the ball to the left side. The 2B took the throw to force me out, took a step over the bag toward 3B, and made a bad throw to 1B. I did not slide; instead I ran to the opposite side of the bag. Umpire called the batter-runner out at first. He ruled I had altered the second baseman's play. I have two problems with the call. First, I don't think it was close. I was out by a mile and the second baseman had completed his throw to first before I came anywhere near the bag. I also made an early and exaggerated move to the outside. I was really surprised by the call. Second, no other umpire made a similar call in our other games. If [the umpire's] call is the standard, then it should have been called at least once in another of our games."

Base running Substitutions

A number of games on some fields did not finish in 2:15 and prompted manager complaints (of each other) due to the long time it took to make a substitution. A reminder that the runner must always be the last-batted out (except A-B shared positions) and that the runner has 30 seconds to sub will go a long way towards solving that issue.

What's a FUN Tournament?

That shouldn't be too hard to define. We can remind managers to remind the teams to have fun. And we ask our umpires to make player ejections a very last resort. But we had a terrible incident on one field last year with a player who got way out of control. Umpires had to eject him and the director escort him off the field. That umpire made the right call (the author witnessed it firsthand). But please do everything you can to prevent players from being ejected. In the spirit of fun, for example, we do not expect to strictly enforce MSBL rules on uniforms, age checks or mercy rules (2b). Any issue with enforcement and having fun shall be at the umpire's discretion or appealed to the field director.

Pre-game Managers Meeting Items

There are a few items that should be added to your normal pre-game meetings for this tournament.

- This is a FUN tournament (explain, e.g. don't want ejections)
- Home teams for playoff games will be based on standings at the end of Round Robin play throughout playoffs (a play-off win does not count). MSBL rules, Home team dugout is first-base side
- 3 courtesy runners plus catcher mandatory when 2 outs
- A/B Lineups allowed and keep courtesy runners
- Shared players allowed. If shared lineup:
  - Shared players must be announced pre-game meeting
  - Shared A-B players can bat in any order, manager preference
  - May add B any time in game but once B runs, B must bat once next time in order
  - Emphasize no courtesy runners if shared lineup chosen, but catcher must still come out after two out.
- No alcohol on all fields, co cigarettes on San Diego JC fields.
- NO SEEDS on fields or stands at Palomar College, Carlsbad HS

UMPIRES: once again thank you for your service.
